

I chose to buy an XM radio and the programming which is different from the free airwaves. If the listeners of XM want traffic and weather in a place they know they can find it when they want then we should be allowed to receive that information.